

QUICK REFERENCE CARDS FOR CBP AND ICE AGENTS

In today's enhanced enforcement environment, having an immediate alert system when encounters go wrong can be the difference between quick resolution and extended detention.

Safely Arrived (safelyarrived.com) creates an automated safety net specifically designed for high-risk travel situations.

PRIMARY INSPECTION

- ☐ Have documents ready and organized
- ☐ Greet officer politely
- ☐ Answer questions directly and honestly
- ☐ Don't volunteer extra information
- ☐ Be patient with processing time
- ☐ Follow instructions precisely

SECONDARY INSPECTION

- ☐ Remain calm – this is routine
- ☐ Answer consistently with primary inspection
- ☐ Be prepared for extended questioning
- ☐ Have supporting documents accessible
- ☐ Don't ask why you're in secondary
- ☐ Be patient with waiting times

DEVICE SEARCH

Citizens: Can refuse but the device may be seized

Non-Citizens: Refusal may result in entry denial

- ☐ Understand consequences of refusal
- ☐ Provide passcodes if complying
- ☐ Don't volunteer additional passwords
- ☐ Request receipt if device confiscated

ICE ENCOUNTER

- ☐ "Am I free to leave?"
- ☐ "Do you have a warrant?"
- ☐ "I want to speak to a lawyer"
- ☐ "I choose to remain silent"
- ☐ "I do not consent to any search"
- ☐ Don't run or resist physically

DETENTION RESPONSE

- ☐ Invoke the right to silence immediately
- ☐ Request attorney repeatedly
- ☐ Ask for embassy/consulate contact (non-citizens)
- ☐ Don't discuss immigration status
- ☐ Don't sign any documents without attorney review
- ☐ Remember officer names and badge numbers
- ☐ Note time, location, and treatment
- ☐ Don't resist physically, even if arrest is unlawful

BON VOYAGE

“One's destination is never a place but rather a new way of looking at things.” – Henry Miller
